

Objectives:

- 1) to secure as much external funding as possible to digitize Southern Oregon newspapers
- 2) to understand what Jackson County newspapers have been digitized by the ODNP at UO
- 3) to rank future Jackson County newspapers for digitization
- 4) to develop a collaborative approach to funding, including individual giving and grant funding

Background:

University of Oregon 2009 federal funding to establish the Oregon Digital Newspaper Program, focusing on public domain newspapers, 1860-1922. More than one million pages are available online as of Jan 1, 2019. First phase of the collection loaded to Newspapers.com and LC Chronicling America.

Welcome

Welcome to Historic Oregon Newspapers. On this site you can search and access complete content for historic Oregon newspapers that have been digitized as part of the Oregon Digital Newspaper Program (ODNP). This full-text searchable database contains almost 1,300,000 pages from Oregon newspapers dated 1846 - 2019, and we are continually adding new titles.

- To see all titles on this site, check out the Titles page.
- You can also browse titles by city in the Map and Locations sections.
- To search the text of the newspapers, use the search box or Advanced Search option.
- For more help on using the site, visit our Help section.

ODNP is committed to providing free online access to historic Oregon newspapers. This is made possible with the support of federal and state grants, the UO Libraries, and through private donations. Become a partner or contribute.
