RVGS Program: Planning for the Future – The Member Survey Results and More by Rich Miles and Anne Billeter

Summary Reports

- 1. Education – Genealogy Week will be Sep 23-27 with a focus on beginning genealogy. The format has changed. Each day there will be a class in the morning. Participants will be encouraged to bring their lunch and stay for practice sessions with mentors in the afternoon, with the exception of Tuesday, Sep 24, when there will be a Quilts and Genealogy Program about Sue Waldron’s 9/11 Quilt in the afternoon.
In October we will begin two Beginning Genealogy Class Series, with monthly classes @ $5.00 for members, $10.00 for non-members. Classes will be on the second Thursdays, In Person from 10:30 AM – Noon, and Zoom from 6:00 – 7:30 PM.
- 2. Membership - Loretta Barker - Membership stands at 667.
- 3. Technology & Data Management – The annual fund drive was launched June 1st.
- 4. Volunteer - Ann Baracker - We currently have 76 volunteers, who worked 999 hours in May 2024. Preparations are in full swing for our July 20 Open House: “Chasing Freedom, Our Ancestors’ Search for Life, Liberty, and Happiness.” You are invited to wear a costume representing an historical person.
